The University Grants Commission (UGC), Nepal is currently undertaking Higher Education Project (HERP, 2014-2020) which is a national priority project supported by the World Bank for facilitating implementation of the higher policy framework of Nepal. The national higher educational policy framework emphasizes on systematic development of higher education in the country. For the success of the policy implementation, it is imperative that the system is capable with reliable Education Management Information System (EMIS). One of the important aspects of the EMIS is to publish it in the form of report annually. This report is the first edition in this line.

The national higher education policy framework lists major thrusts of ensuring access to higher education on the basis of the aptitude and equity, criteria based quality assurance, priority based relevance, research based innovation and development, and performance based funding. This report covers major parts of the H-EMIS indicators and their analysis.

The UGC is aiming to build a comprehensive and coordinated EMIS extending from UGC to the universities and to their College, made open and accessible to the concerned stakeholders. National Academy of Science and Technology is also developing EMIS with the help of H-EMIS developed by UGC. The main strategy is to develop and use a web-based compatible EMIS system. The college is using and customizing web based EMIS. There are many challenges in developing comprehensive EMIS in the college because the software purchased by the College in yet to deliver its output in some modules it is in the phase of data entry and most of the modules are tested and working correctly.

The EMIS Report lists the information related to the academic programs, students, faculty members, research, publications, and financing. The data are disaggregated by important variables and analyzed to provide important issues based on the indicators derived from various sources. It is expected to benefit the researchers and its stakeholders. The College would like to request the readers to provide constructive feedback and suggestions for further improvement of the report in the future.

FINANCIAL ASPECT OF THE COLLEGE

The college has established its separate finance/account section. It carries all accounting and financial transactions. The college has adopted banking system for all (cash receipts and) payments. For that the college has opened bank accounts into Kumari Bank, Dhangadhi Branch.

The fees are deposited by the students in three ways: Online payment system with the proof submitted to the account section, depositing in the Bank themselves and voucher collected by the staff of account section and direct cash deposited at the fee counter of the college. For all types of payments, fee invoice is granted to the students. All deposited vouchers are also reported in bank cash book by the staff of account section on the same date.

For the payment purpose, the college has run an operating account. Any amount of payments is made through a cheque which is operated with signature of the senior account officer and the MD (or Principal). Cheques for payment of expenses are issued in the name of concerned party.

The college follows the fiscal year of Nepal government and the accounting records are verified and audited by an auditor of at least "B" class under the prescription of district treasury controller office of Kailali district. The auditor is selected by the Board of Directors. Every asset in the College is first entered in store ledger and then systematically used by concerned department according to rules of the college. The main sources of income of the college is the fees collected from students. The college earns small amount of revenue by renting its land at Mohanpur.

For the fiscal year 2076/77, the total operational and management cost is Rs. 43411569 and the number of students enrolled in the same year for 2076/77 is 565 according to strategic plan.

Cost per student per year (for 2076/77, actual)

$$= \frac{\text{Total Operational \& management Exp.}}{\text{No. of Students Enrolled}}$$

$$= \frac{43411569}{565} = Rs 76834.64$$

These data were collected from years using software tools. The collected data were presented in tabular format in spread sheet and analyzed to prepare report.

- Those data were exported in excel and presented in a standard format made by EMIS team for report purpose.
- As there were noise, redundancies in data, effort to clean those noise and redundancy were made as much as possible, however there are some redundancies. After cleaning data, aggregated table was generated.
- From the aggregate table, summary tables required to prepare the report was generated
- Those summary tables were analyzed and interpreted
